

Book Resources for the @Home Ministry

Books chosen for our @Home Ministry are excellent works, and you will find them to be a great help in your growth as a Christian. With that said, a few of these books have endorsements by some church leaders that we personally do not share in or agree with their views or some of their doctrines. It should be noted these endorsements are just that and that these individuals are not contributors, nor co-authors in the book. Please also note that the Bible is the final authority on all of the subjects of these books and that everything mentioned in these books may not be endorsed by CCCH. We thought it wise to acknowledge this, as there will always be those who will find fault with nearly everyone and everything and by doing so have set themselves up as a judge. We simply offer this disclaimer for your peace of mind. Always remember that the only real book and final authority on all issues of life, both small and great, is the Bible and by it we are to discern all things.

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.”

1 Thessalonians 5:21
